

MANDELA MINING PRECINCT
MINDS FOR MINES

CHEAT SHEET

POST-APPLICATION

QUESTIONS	RESPONSE
Have you submitted the required supporting documentation for your tender submission?	Please navigate to the original tender notification and reevaluate. Alternatively contact the email address or telephone number listed on the tender.
Are you aware of the pre-application readiness survey that assists by guiding you through the application process?	Click here to access the Pre-Application Checklist.
Have you taken our pre-application readiness survey?	Click here to access the Pre-Application Checklist.
Have you provided the mining company with the correct contact information?	Please navigate to the original tender notification and reevaluate. Alternatively contact the email address or telephone number listed on the tender.
Did you verify that your application was successfully submitted?	Please familiarise yourself with the preferred method of communication to vendors from the mine, this may be via the vendor portal itself, email or telephone. If you are unclear on what the preferred method of communication is, contact the person whose details are listed on the tender. It is recommended that you call the person and follow up with a confirmatory email.
Do you know where to check the status of your application?	Please contact the person listed on the application.
Are you actively monitoring the status of your application?	Please be sure to monitor your application in the event that you are successful but unaware.